God's Final Words to the Church—His Vineyard—Before the Return of Christ

HOUSTON, Texas—Vim Publications announces the official release date of Death and the Resurrection: From the Grave to Heaven, on April 2, 2011.

Terri L. Watts has written Death and the Resurrection as a final, prophetic message to the churches and to the world before the Second Coming of Jesus Christ which should not be disregarded. Watts was inspired by the Holy Spirit to begin writing her book during Christian Holy Week, 2007 as a result of persistent media hype, surrounded by mystery and out-spoken, obsessive doubters of Christ's resurrection. Through the Power of the Holy Spirit, Ms. Watts' book declares a captivating and thorough assessment of Christ's death and His Resurrection, the meaning of death, the coming of the Second Advent and the threat of the Second Death. Much of her prophetic message expounds on the book of Revelation. "Believers look forward to the Second Coming of the Lord for their ascension into Heaven," states Ms. Watts. Some Christians call it "The Rapture."

Death and the Resurrection: From the Grave to Heaven message is timely, and accentuates the signs of escalating events around the world which continue to fulfill the words of Jesus Christ in the New Testament. Being a chosen vessel to deliver to reapers an abundant message from God's Holy Word (Christ), readers of her book will have a clearer understanding of death and ascension. "The Epiphany of Jesus Christ will not be short-lived," she discloses. Watts explains in her new book, to followers and doubters of Christ, how our resurrection from the grave will happen at the end of days.

Ms. Watts states that "Muslims may believe Christ was simply a good Prophet but to Christians, Christ was not only a Prophet but their Saviour." Hindus may believe Christ is of many reincarnations or rebirths while others may be agnostic or atheist. Death and the Resurrection will provide to Jews, and to Gentiles, a deeper understanding as to why Christians celebrate Easter which is their time to celebrate the Resurrection of Christ for their final victory over death (sin). Christ is God's incarnate Word, man of flesh and of Spirit, Who was born of woman once as we have done, and died once as we shall do in order to live again.

Ms. Watts' book is intensely uplifting to Believers, filled with an unyielding certainty and inspiring hope to those living in Christ, who await a New Jerusalem. Death and the Resurrection will ignite this question to all readers to ponder, "Do you think Christians are ready for the return of Christ to enter into a New Jerusalem?"

Look forward to His Second Coming soon. Armageddon will be war in the heavens a second time: an apocalyptic event for the entire world to witness when the graves are opened. Are you prepared for the return of the Lord?
